

Workshop no. 3

Showcasing Pedagogical Practices of Awarded AESOP QR Planning Programs and NMBU's Role in Tackling Environmental and Technological Challenges

Organized by: NMBU, -Mina Di Marino, the Program Committee of the 5-year Master's Program in Urban and Regional Planning (Jin Xue, Andreas Hengstermann and Anja Standal), AESOP Excellence in Education Board (Tijana Dabovic, chair of EEB), and other AESOP members.

Location: Admiralen, Bikuben

Email main coordinator: mina.di.marino@nmbu.no and scaffidi@staedtebau.uni-hannover.de

AESOP - WORKSHOPS

First part of the workshop aims to showcase, discuss and explore pedagogical practices and institutional settings of the awarded AESOP QR planning programs with colleagues from the Global North and Global South. These educational innovations are focused on enabling future planners to tackle environmental, technological, but also social challenges.

16.00 Short intro by Mina Di Marino and Federica Scaffidi

16.05-16.20 Show cases from the Global South by Zeynep Enlil, Bora Yerliyurt, Deniz Erdem Okumuş (Department of Urban and Regional Planning, Yildiz Technical University Faculty of Architecture)

16.20-16.35 Show cases from the Global North by Matthew Cashmore and by Christoffer Gerkman, a master student who attended the course presented as showcase, (Department of Urban and Regional Planning, NMBU, Faculty of Landscape and Society,

16.35 -17.00 Discussion (to actively engage participants to share additional examples related to the topics and reflecting on the presented case studies), moderated by Mina Di Marino

Second part of the workshop aims to outline the role and responsibilities of the Program Committee in planning education at NMBU.

17.00 -17.15. The role of the Program Committee at NMBU by Jin Xue (Program Committee leader)

17.15-17.30 Discussion -mutual learning and sharing among other study programs about similar committees, moderated by Federica Scaffidi (Hannover University)