Evaluation Report

After an in-depth examination of its academic curriculum and teaching pedagogy, the MSc in Architecture with Specialization in Urbanism offered at the Lisbon School of Architecture, University of Lisbon, has been conferred the AESOP Certificate of Quality.

The Master Programme in Architecture with Specialization in Urbanism offered at the Lisbon School of Architecture has been evaluated by two members of the AESOP Excellence in Education Board (EEB) appointed by the Chair. The EEB certifies that the above programme fulfils the Quality Recognition criteria.

Quality in Planning Education

The MSc in Architecture offered at the Lisbon School of Architecture, University of Lisbon, is distinctive in its focus on urbanism. It brings together the following aspects of quality in planning education:

- Programme Curriculum and Identity
 - Development of professional and reflexive practice by exposure of students to issues of public interest and equity through project and studio work, involving discussions and focused exercises.
 - Focus on territorial systems at multiple scales, exploring critical links between and within scales, working closely with non-academic partners.
 - Promotion of methods to address climate change in urbanism through sustainability concepts and systemic approaches, thereby responding to an important contemporary societal change.

QUALITY RECOGNITION AESOP

- Principles of Pedagogy

- The development of practical reasoning and judgement in students through studio works involving non-academic institutions, and promoting practice-based discussions and reflections.
- Interdisciplinary teaching of urbanism by embedding theories, methods, and approaches from different disciplines.
- Recognition and promotion of excellence in students through prizes at various course and year levels; encouragement to participate in competitions and engage with wider audiences; and use of exemplary work as reference for future student work.

The AESOP Certificate of Quality and this Evaluation Report are valid for a period of six years (2022-2028).
