New Perspectives on Planning Theory

12 May 2011 University of the West of England, Bristol

This 1-day Planning Theory conference hosted by the Department of Planning and Architecture at the University of the West of England aims to bring together new and established researchers to discuss theoretical challenges and identify new theoretical perspectives in the discipline of planning.

This Inaugural conference will honour the contribution of Dr Nigel Taylor who retired from UWE this year. Nigel has written widely on planning theory and is probably most known for his textbook Urban Planning Theory since 1945.

We are currently seeking abstracts for presentations on the broad theme of 'New Perspectives on Planning Theory'. These could include empirical papers with theoretical reflections and 'pure' theory papers. Please send abstracts of no more than 200 words to either of the organisers (see email addresses below) by 1 March.
