

AESOP – PRIZE FOR EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING FOR PRACTICE - APPLICATION FORM 2011

Name of school, member of AESOP?

Address and website address (if applicable)

Contact Person/E-Mail/Telephone

Title of course or module nominated

COURSE DESCRIPTION

1. Course content

2. The concept of “planning” which underlies the course

3. Context/institutional setting (country, educational system, institution etc)

4. Learners (type, members on course, stage in education)

5. Learning objectives, what are the students expected to master?

6. Pedagogical goals and approach used to achieve the learning objectives

HIGH QUALITY AND CREATIVE APPROACH

1. Why the approach is of high quality and creative

2. How the course/module is innovative for planning practice

3. In what way does the course integrate theory and practice

4. In what way does the course specifically prepare students for “reflective” practice

5. If any difficulties were met, how they were (or can) be overcome

6. How can the successful elements of the course be reproduced and applied at other institutions

If there has been a formal assessment of the module/course by the university, please include the details here.

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Use a maximum of two sides for this section of the form.

1. “Teachers” Self-Assessment

2. “Students” Self-Assessment

All applications must be submitted electronically to: fpiccolo@unipa.it before 15th of May 2011