

Making Better Places

The Planning Project in the Twenty-First Century

PATSY HEALEY

May 2010 - £22.99 - 978-0-230-20057-9

“Wise, insightful and thoroughly grounded in the complex realities of planning practice, Making Better Places will be read with pleasure by practicing planners everywhere. It will also be ideal for the classroom and I recommend it very highly - and intend to use it myself - for both undergraduate and graduate courses.’

- Karen Christensen, Associate Professor and Chair of the Department of City and Regional Planning, University of California, Berkeley, USA

‘A rich and inspiring read, written with authority, deep understanding and extraordinary clarity by one of the world’s leading planning scholars.’

- Alessandro Balducci, Politecnico di Milano, Italy

In this major reassessment of what planning can and should achieve, Patsy Healey sets out a radical but realistic agenda which will be essential reading for practitioners and an ideal introduction for students entering the field.
