

FACULTY POSITIONS
Urban Studies
NYU ABU DHABI

New York University has established a campus in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates, and invites applications for faculty positions at any level (assistant, associate or full professor) for appointments in a multidisciplinary program in Urban Studies. We encourage applicants from any of the social sciences (economics, political science, sociology, anthropology, geography), urban policy or urban planning. We are particularly interested in applicants with a global or comparative focus, whose work addresses some of the challenges of urbanization in developing countries. The terms of employment are competitive compared to U.S. benchmarks and include housing and educational subsidies for children. Faculty may also spend time at NYU in New York and at its other global campuses. The appointment might begin as soon as September 1, 2011, or could be delayed until September 1, 2012.

NYU Abu Dhabi is recruiting faculty of international distinction committed to active research and the finest teaching, to building a pioneering global institution of the highest quality, and to forging an international community of scholars and students.

Alongside its highly-selective liberal arts college, NYU Abu Dhabi will create distinctive graduate programs and a world-class institute for advanced research that fosters creative work across the Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, Sciences, and Engineering. Situated at a new global crossroads, NYU Abu Dhabi has the resources and resolve to become a preeminent center of collaborative intellectual pursuit and impact.

NYU New York and NYU Abu Dhabi are integrally connected. The faculties work together, and the campuses form the foundation of a unique global network university, linked to NYU's other study and research sites on five continents.

Major research projects and public programs are underway. We have recruited our first cohort of faculty across many disciplines and have launched the first class of students of remarkable potential from across the world in Fall 2010. The international character of NYUAD is reflected in the global composition of the faculty and the student body as well as the research agenda and curriculum, which have been designed to promote inventiveness, intellectual curiosity, multidisciplinary interest, and intercultural understanding.

Applications for tenure track positions are due on November 12, 2010. Applicants need to submit a curriculum vitae, statement of research and teaching interests, representative research papers and three letters of reference in PDF form to be considered. Please visit our website at <http://nyuad.nyu.edu/human.resources/open.positions.html> for instructions and other information on how to apply. If you have any questions, please e-mail nyuad.urbanstudies@nyu.edu.

NYU Abu Dhabi is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.
